TWENTY-SECOND ANNUAL CONVENTION PROGRAM ALREADY WELL IN HAND

Hiatt of Butler University has been the active force behind the Chapter establishment and will continue as Faculty Adviser to Beta Mu Chapter.

Under date of February 16, 1950, by vote of the Grand Executive Council, which had been empowered to act on several petitioning schools, a telegram was sent to Professor Laura B. PROSPECTS GOOD FOR ETA SIGMA PHI
ANNUAL ESSAY AND SPECIAL
GREEK CONTESTS

The first entry for the Fifth Annual Essay Contest came to the hands of the Executive Secretary on March 1, well in advance of the postmark deadline date of March 15, 1950. Considerable correspondence in the preceding weeks indicated a gratifying interest in this yearly event, and a possibility that the number of entrants in 1948-1949 would be surpassed this year.

Essay Contest Judges

A board of five judges will be asked to pass on the entries. Serving as Chairman will be Professor George J. Ryan of the College of William and Mary, at Williamsburg, Virginia. Invitations to act are being sent also to: Professor Olivia N. Dorman, Florida State University, Tallahassee, Florida; Professor Philip Whaley Harsh, Stanford University, Stanford, California; The Reverend Laurence E. Henderson, S. J., Loyola University, Chicago, Illinois; and Mrs. Harry W. Joedicke, Mary Institute, Clayton, Missouri.

There was originally a certain diffidence with regard to an embarking on a Special Greek Translation Contest. Yet, as of March 1, 1950, upwards of thirty-five entry names had been received, from fifteen different institutions: Florida State University, Fordham University, University of Georgia, Grinnell College, Hampden-Sydney College, Houghton College, Lawrence College, Louisiana State University, Marquette University, Rosary College, Saint Louis University, Trinity College, College of William and Mary, Wofford College, and Xavier University.

Greek Contest Judges

Professor Christopher C. Brouzas, of the University of West Virginia, has already accepted the Chairmanship of the Committee of three Judges for the Special Greek Translation Contest. Invitations to serve are being sent also to The Reverend George E. Ganss, S. J., of Marquette University, and Professor Levi R. Lind, of the University of Kansas.

In both contests, Judges will identify the papers by code symbol only.

DELVINGS IN THE HISTORY OF THE NUNTIUS:
PART III

As The Nuntius moved into Volume 2, it moved likewise from a mimeographed to a printed form. Number 1 of the volume is dated November 1927, Cincinnati, Ohio, with Helen E. Bachman of Mu Chapter, at the University of Cincinnati, as Editor. Whether there were numbers 2, 3, and 4 of this Volume 2 or not is not clear. The files in the Editor's office have nothing after the present number until Volume 3, number 3. Here is a case where alumni members can be of real help.

After an introductory message from the National President "To the Presidents of Local Chapters", there follows an editorial on The Nuntius, where the Editor defines the function or the publication as this: "to knit together the various Chapters of Eta Sigma Phi through editorial contact". However, she seems rather pessimistic on the destinies of the paper because of "the lack of cooperation on the part of most Chapters with the Editor". Her concluding admonition is "If you want a good paper get busy and send in your news copy!"

A paragraph on general information advises a consultation of "Lloyd Stow, Alpha Chapter, University of Chicago" on matters concerning ritual. Interestingly enough, the present Professor Lloyd Stow of the University of Oklahoma is still serving the Fraternity--now as a Trustee and as Registrar of the Medal Fund. The present Chairman of the Board of Trustees is mentioned also in the number of The Nuntius under discussion; for we read that "The articles of incorporation were completed last summer, mainly through the instrumentality of Professor Victor D. Hill of Ohio University".

Mention is made of plans to install Alpha Beta Chapter at Denver University, the representative to be "Dr. Charles Mierow, President and Professor of Classical Languages and Literatures of Colorado College". Dr. Mierow is at present Professor of Biography at Carleton College, Northfield, Minnesota, where he continues to be very active in classical circles.

The eight-page issue concludes with a "Directory of the Local Secretaries and Presidents". Here twenty-six Chapters are mentioned, beginning with Alpha and ending with Alpha Gamma, Psi being omitted. For most of them, definite names and addresses appear for both the local offices mentioned.

National Treasurer, Dolores Neff

DOLORES NEFF A JUNIOR AT OHIO UNIVERSITY

The third successive National Treasurer of Eta Sigma Phi from Gamma Chapter at Ohio University is Dolores R. Neff, who was born in Akron, Ohio, on May 12, 1929, the daughter of Oscar Daniel Neff and Etta Helena Seitz Neff. She has lived at Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio, however, since shortly after her birth, entering the Lincoln Elementary School at that city in 1935, and continuing until her graduation in January 1943.

The following month she enrolled at Cuyahoga Falls High School and was graduated in January 1947, the sixth in a class of eighty-seven. Good work accomplished in grade school and high school helped her to the securing of a Freshman Scholarship for Ohio University, where she was matriculated in the College of Liberal Arts in September 1947. Three months of the interval between high school graduation and college entrance she used in the study of typing and accounting in a business school.

She expects to teach and is at present majoring in Latin for the degree of Bachelor of Arts. She is a member of the Spanish Honorary Society, President of Gamma Chapter of Eta Sigma Phi, and a member of a swimming club known as the Finnettes. Swimming has been one of her particular interests, and she holds a Red Cross Instructor's Certificate. She is also Leader of a Girl Scout Brownie Troop in Athens, and last summer was waterfront director of the Canton Girl Scout Camp at Sandoneida.

As Secretary of Gamma Chapter last year, Dolores cooperated in the arrangements for the Twenty-first Annual Convention of the Fraternity at Athens. She expects to complete her course at Ohio in June 1951.

DONALD RODIS A SENIOR AT WASHINGTON AND JEFFERSON COLLEGE

The National Secretary of Eta Sigma Phi, Donald J. Rodis, now a senior at Washington and Jefferson College, at Washington, Pennsylvania, is a native of Ohio. He was born May 20, 1928, in Mahoning County, Youngstown, Ohio, the son of John D. Rodis and Margaret Ruth Hoopes Rodis.

At Youngstown, he entered Boardman Grade School in September, 1934, and was graduated in May 1942. The following September saw him at Boardman High School, where he followed the scientific course. He was active in extra-curricular activities, participating in such organizations as Student Government, Debate Team, Band, Orchestra, Torch Club, Hi Y, and School Paper; in the last named activity he was Business Manager.

After graduation in May 1946 he turned his attention to college, and enrolled at Washington and Jefferson College in September of the same year. He is at present a senior, in the course of Business Administration. He expects to receive the degree of Bachelor of Arts in June 1950, with a major in Economics and a Minor in Mathematics.

At Washington and Jefferson he has been active, of course, in Alpha Psi Chapter of Eta Sigma Phi. He is also a member of Lambda Chi Alpha Social Fraternity, in which he has been Treasurer and Social Chairman.

His plans after June are still indefinite, beyond the fact that he expects to continue his studies in a graduate program.

National Secretary, Donald Rodis

"BACK TO THE OLD SOURCES"

"The classics, the humanities", writes the well known American novelist, Miss Willa Cather, in an essay on "Nebraska", "are having their dark hour. They are in eclipse. Studies that develop taste and enrich personality are not encouraged. But the 'Classics' have a way of revenging themselves. One may venture to hope that the children, or the grandchildren, of a generation that goes to a university to select only the most utilitarian subjects in the course of study--among them salesmanship and dressmaking--will revolt against all the heaped-up, machine-made materialism about them. They will go back to the old sources of culture and wisdom--not as a duty, but with burning desire".

This quotation, brought to the attention of its thousands of readers, in fuller form than here given, by the Saint Louis Post-Dispatch of February 19, 1950, has the highest import to those of us who are concerned over mass movements of liberal arts education from the mountain to the market-place. No argument of "change of times", of "adaptation of education to the multitudes", or of a "realization that students must learn to make a living", can alter the fact education must look to life even more than to a living.

This is not to say that nothing in recent centuries or even in recent years of even of yesterday is suited for liberal education. But it is to say that education is playing a short-sighted, culpable game in rejecting "the old sources" which are tried and tested by the centuries.

The literatures of ancient Greece and Rome are preeminently important among the "old sources". In them, and in the discipline of instruction that has grown up about them, are inexhaustible treasures of things fundamentally and abidingly human--experiences and thoughts which the distance of time and space allow us to view and to understand with objectivity and profit.

"Back to the old sources" is the very slogan likely to rouse ire in that type of adolescent educationism that lives by clichés of "ever forward" and "progress" and "on to the new". But it takes but a moment's sober thought to realize the wastefulness and inefficiency of attempting to go forward without capitalizing on the experiences of the past, or of plunging into a supposed "new" that, as a matter of fact, has been repeated many times in the long past of human history.

We need constantly to remind ourselves--and more especially those who are influential in shaping educational policy for our colleges of liberal arts--that education without foundations is vain, that classical antiquity provides one very important segment in the foundation of any truly humane training. Yes, "back to the old sources"--for ourselves and for those who are to succeed us in college life tomorrow and thereafter.

ON CONVENTION MINDEDNESS

National gatherings of organizations such as ours can be of considerable benefit to our organizations and to the aims for which they stand. Surely, they can "further the spirit of cooperation and good will among the members of classical departments", a thing properly emphasized in the preamble to our own Constitution. They can give us inspiration and information. They can allow us to perform business of concern to the Fraternity as a whole, and to all Chapters individually.

But to achieve these fine purposes, a national convention must have two things--attendance from as many Chapters as possibly can come, and participation through well prepared reports and intelligent contribution to the business at hand. As yet there is more than a month until the Twenty-second National Convention opens on April 21 at Nashville. Psi Chapter there is making every effort in the way of preparation. It remains for the several Chapters to carry their share.

LATIN WEEK IN 1950

"Classical School Days" is the title of the current Latin Week Bulletin, written this year, as several of its predecessors have been written, by Professor Clyde Murley of Northwestern University. Copies are available from Professor Murley, in any number desired, at 629 Noyes Street, Evanston, Illinois. "Latin Week" itself is expected to be observed widely; the week of April 16-22 is suggested, as April 21, the traditionally celebrated "birthday of Rome", falls within that period. Schools and other organizations celebrating "Latin Week" are being asked to report their activities to Professor Murley's Committee.

CONGRATULATIONS TO ALPHA THETA!

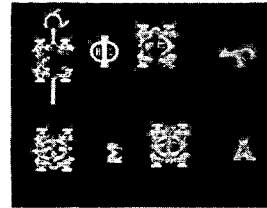

A particularly complete list of past Chapter members has been received from Alpha Theta Chapter at Hunter College, in the continuing drive of the Executive Secretary's office to obtain information on past membership in the Fraternity. Previously, lists had been received from Alpha Pi Chapter at Gettysburg College, and from Maryville College, constitutent in Beta Zeta Chapter at Saint Louis University. Such lists will, among other things, allow letters of invitation to be sent, for "alumnal membership" in the Fraternity and the support such affiliation can give. The Executive Secretary has asked individual Chapters to aid in the work of alumni solicitation by sending letters to a few chosen persons. Form letters and other material for the purpose were recently sent to all Chapters.

GREEK TO US, TOO?

In its first number of Harper Books and Authors: News about Books in the Humanities, the publishing house calls attention to the Greek inscription enlarged on the front binding and jacket of its American College Dictionary, Text Edition. Says the note: "People started asking us what the Greek inscription meant. In English the phrase means 'Those bearing torches should pass them on to others'". The Greek is "Lampada echontes diadosousin allelois".

THANKS TO SOUTHWESTERN

From Betty Ann McFadden, Secretary of the Classical Language Club of Southwestern at Memphis has come a subscription for the Club to The Nuntius. President of the Classical Language Club is Vivienne Chelton.

Factories: ATTLEBORO, MASSACHUSETTS

AMONG THE CHAPTERSGAMMA, OHIO UNIVERSITY (ATHENS)

Dolores Neff, whose "vita actaque" carries forward in the present issue of The Nuntius the long distance interviews with National Officers, continues busily at work handling the Treasurer's funds of Eta Sigma Phi. She is interested in having as many Chapters as possible on the "financially in order" list when she presents her annual report at Nashville in April.

DELTA, FRANKLIN COLLEGE

Delta performed good service for the Fraternity as a whole when on February 2 a delegation from Franklin College journeyed to Indianapolis to assist in the installation of the newest Chapter, Beta Mu, at Butler University.

PI, BIRMINGHAM-SOUTHERN COLLEGE

Ten new members were initiated into Pi Chapter on January 26. They are: Joel Edwin Cumbie, James Patrick Galloway, Arthur Earl Gordon, John A. Hallmark, Jr., Chris E. Hauer, Jr., John Holston, Herman Wallace King, H. Stanley Mullins, Shirley Jane Peppard, and Richard N. Robertson. The ceremonies were followed by the annual initiation banquet.

PSI, VANDERBILT UNIVERSITY

Communications have been going back and forth between William N. Hulsey, Jr., and the office of the Executive Secretary with regard to the Twenty-second National Convention of Eta Sigma Phi. The Local Committee already has plans rather completely made.

OMEGA, COLLEGE OF WILLIAM AND MARY

National and Chapter President Elliott Wilkins writes that Omega was entertained at its January meeting with a talk on "Greek Music" by Dr. Haign of the William and Mary Music Department. Dr. Haign played a recording of a restored song and emphasized the great influence which music had had in Greece. Professor George J. Ryan was scheduled for an address at the March meeting.

ALPHA DELTA, AGNES SCOTT COLLEGE

Ann Windham, Treasurer, reports five active members and five initiates in Alpha Delta. A letter of January 20 from Chapter President Martha Weakley expressed the Chapter's interest in the National Convention.

ALPHA EPSILON, LEHIGH UNIVERSITY

An interesting and lengthy letter from James L. Gill arrived under date of February 17. Alvord Beardslee, Past President of Alpha Epsilon, was graduated with honors early in February. At a meeting on February 16, at the home of Professor Earl L. Crum, Gill was installed as the new President. The Chapter has a mimeographed program of its activities for the year, calling for nine meetings in all. The project for the year is "Greek and Roman Drama". At the meeting of January 12, at the home of Professor H. W. Wright, Alvord Beardslee spoke on "Aeschylus". At the meeting of February 16, Robert A. Schackles spoke on "Sophocles". Alpha Epsilon expects to be represented in the Fifth Annual Essay Contest and in the Special Greek Translation Contest, and also to have a delegate at the Annual Convention.

Students of the Greek Department at Lehigh again this year were invited by the girls of Cedar Crest College at Allentown to take roles in Cedar Crest's annual Greek play. This year Euripides' Medea has been chosen. Beardslee will portray the Messenger, and Gill will play Jason. The event is scheduled for May 31, and June 1 and 2 in the open-air amphitheatre on the Cedar Crest campus.

ALPHA THETA, HUNTER COLLEGE

Alpha Theta staged an initiation of new members, with alumnae present as guests. The Chapter is having an active year. Marian Astuti has succeeded Cyrille Solomon as President.

ALPHA XI, WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

National Vice-President and Chapter President William Donovan reports an active membership of twenty persons in Alpha Xi Chapter.

ALPHA OMICRON, LAWRENCE COLLEGE

LaVerne McKay, Nuntius correspondent, reports a business meeting on February 21, at which Betty Bohl was appointed Temporary Secretary. Later, the Chapter listened to the Medea as recorded by Judith Anderson. Refreshments were served by Miss Wiegand.

ALPHA RHO, MUHLENBERG COLLEGE

From Richard Boyer, Chapter Secretary, comes word that ten men were initiated into membership during the fall term. There was a Christmas meeting at the home of Professor Horn. Discussions at the monthly meetings this year deal with "Greek and Roman Home, Social, and School Life". The Chapter has sent out the alumni letters suggested by the Executive Secretary's office. A banquet is planned for the spring.

ALPHA PHI, MILLSAPS COLLEGE

Writing on February 22, Dewey Buckley, Chapter President, sends a list of officers in addition to nineteen active members. Turner Cassity is Vice-President, and Benjamin Franklin is Treasurer. Alpha Phi expects to be represented at the National Convention in April. At its meeting on February 14, the Chapter heard an informal talk on "A Layman's Plato", by Mr. Ralph Merriam, a prominent Chicago Attorney.

An important project of the Chapter again was the sponsoring of the annual meeting of the Mississippi Classical Association on December 3, 1949. Over five hundred persons attended from fifteen high schools. The program included six classical skits presented by various schools. The Millsaps skit, given in conjunction with Central High School, was written by Turner Cassity, Vice-President of the Alpha Phi. From the fifteen-cent registration fee the Chapter collected almost seventy-five dollars.

ALPHA PSI, WASHINGTON AND JEFFERSON COLLEGE

National Secretary Donald Rodis faces the task of presenting the Minutes of the Twenty-first Annual Meeting on April 21 and 22, and also of keeping full and accurate records of the proceedings of the Twenty-second National Convention.

ALPHA OMEGA, LOUISIANA STATE UNIVERSITY

Alpha Omega hopes to send a delegate to the coming National Convention, writes Chapter President Claude E. Henkel. The Chapter has declined in numbers because of graduations, but it is doing all that it can to rouse interest. The alumni letters are being sent out, and Fraternity jewelry will be discussed at the next meeting. Incidentally, Alpha Omega's card was the first to return in reply to the Executive Secretary's letter.

BETA ALPHA, UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH DAKOTA

Beta Alpha lists twelve active members in a financial report of January 24, 1950, to the National Treasurer. Professor Grace Beede remains Adviser, a post she has filled with distinction for many years.

BETA ZETA, SAINT LOUIS UNIVERSITY

Four active members, twenty initiates, twenty-five associates, and nine honorary members are listed by Georgianne McVay, Chapter

Treasurer. At the meeting of January 29, 1950, at the home of Faculty Adviser and Mrs. W. C. Korfmacher, business included the installation of officers and the election of Jean Anderson of Fontbonne College as Secretary, to fill a vacancy. There was a talk by Dr. Korfmacher on "The Meaning of Membership in Eta Sigma Phi". On February 25, the Chapter met at the home of President J. Thomas Vitt, Jr. Professor Chauncey E. Finch spoke on "Latin Words in Russian".

BETA ETA, WESTMINSTER COLLEGE

Professor Robert Hoerber writes that Beta Eta is active again this year, having meetings on the second and fourth Friday of each month. Members of the Chapter have become interested in Greek and Roman philosophy, and so are discussing such authors as Plato, Aristotle, and Cicero.

BETA THETA, HAMPDEN-SYDNEY COLLEGE

From Vance Hall, Chapter Secretary, comes word that that Professor A. B. Frazer of the University of Virginia would speak on "Cities and Shrines of Greece" at a meeting during the week of March 5. Invitations to membership, he adds, would soon be extended to nine Hampden-Sydney men.

BETA MU, BUTLER UNIVERSITY

Officers in this youngest Chapter, as elected on February 2, are the following: President John R. Thomson; Vice-President, Arnold Wajenberg; Secretary, Thelma Miller; Treasurer, Lucille Greenburg; Sergeant-at-arms, Robert Logue.

WORD FROM PAST PRESIDENT USSERY

Travis Ussery, energetic National President of Eta Sigma Phi in 1948-1949, has sent a lengthy letter to the Editor of The Nuntius on February 12, from Albuquerque, where he is a student in School of Law at the University of New Mexico. He is keenly interested in the fortunes of Eta Sigma Phi and has various good ideas to pass on. He suggests that the Executive Secretary's office prepare an addressograph nameplate for each member, to be used during college days and thereafter, as a means of keeping contact, and also a "reply form" to go periodically to each Chapter for news for The Nuntius. At New Mexico, Travis is devoting full time to his studies in the second year of law, he writes. He averaged second in his class for the first semester, and was awarded a scholarship for the second semester. He thinks the idea of Fraternity "introduction" pamphlet will be serviceable to all Chapters.
